SATURDAY, - - - Feb. 8, 1868 CENTRAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE FOR THE DISTRICT OF WEST TENNESSEE -The following named gentlemen are hereby appointed weakly urged by the Secretary of State upon lovely, transparent day, in July last, I bade trict of West Tennessec:

Shelby County-M. D. I. Stewart, Alfred T. Lucey, Jesse W. Page. Weakley County-Wm, P. Caldwell, Dyer County-Charles Gibbs, Gibson County-Wise A. Cooper. Madison County-W. W. Gutes. Hardeman County-

McNairy County - S. L. Warren. With full power to appoint a Congressthe several counties composing their respective Congressional Districts.

By order of the State Central Executive State of Tennessee.

Shurraina .- It is hoped the Chief Execupermit the people to make a square deal once more. There is no use in shuffling all | cumstances, during the rebellion, the paint off the pictures. Grant tried to raised a cold deck, being backed by the a fight !" Senate, and beat Andy's "pat hand!" Pendleton will have to "take a hand" in this national game of "freeze out," or else there will not be cards enough to go round. Seriously, affairs at Washington only remind us of the fact that a crisis, terrible in its results, is at hand. Congress ignores. the President, the President ignores the Secretary of War, Grant, a storm born mushroom, taunts the President and the President proves him to be careless in making assertions, while he in turn, positively asserts that Andy talks like a babbling spinster ! Cropping out from beneath this disgraceful funbroglio are veins of immensurable trouble to the American people. Instead of the commanding, representative school-boy fashion, a chip on Grants som | a million in Tennessee. brero and then dare Johnson to knock it off, and in case this should fail to "screw their courage to the sticking point," let Johnson put a firecracker in the silent man's Obscuro-Habane-Tobac co, which, no doubt, would man (?) who combined in his single person, have the effect to draw his fire or salt water or in now the common parlance its single from his eyes! Andrew Johnson certainly person, the meanness, the avarice, the duwill not follow the footprints of James plicity, the cowardice, the puppyism of one Buchannan and shuffle off from his shoulders the duties that should be performed at once. He must know that the Democracy of the country will stand by him to the last, that is, so long as his acts are legitimized | there no Hawk-(ins) for this Hunter? by the Constitution. Four northern States have resently, in convention, told the Chief Executive that they endorsed his action; others will follow. Why does he hesitate of the Treasury will show an INGREASE in and continue to shuffle? Why does he the public debt of $20,000,000!! "snuff a war cloud" from afar off and lead the country to believe that a declaration of war may be issued against England at an early day? This is a blind, and will not Johnson be a Jackson? The great masses of the people hope so.

HE'LL Do IT!-Gilbert H. Bates, late wager that he could carry the American ings on the 3d inst, we clip the following: flag from Vicksburg to Washington city, on foot and alone, started on his long march to indemnify loyal citizens for losses during residences, indicating that taste and refine Tuesday, 28th of January last. That's the way the money trunks and were soon slowly wending our fool who looses the wager will have to feed on shadow soup and cringe at the feet of shoddy charity as long as his miserable life shall last. The people of the South made no war upon the American flag- officers of the Press Association of Missisthey reverence and love it now, but detest sippi for the year 1868: the damnable rascality goncorted beneath Its folds by a merciless set of hell cats-Bates will win the wager!

HATCHIE MIVEE .- Again we call upon our Representative in the Legislature to do something towards having justice done the people | each other, that which sells the products of who live along the banks of Hatchie river, her own manufacture-gains, becomes poweach and every one of whom, besides a host ortal, and governs; while the other, which then groups of wild hogs, frightened at our bankrupt, to him, or for his use, and the of others, desire the obstruction to naviga exports only agricultural products-loses, civilized appearance, would dert off as transfer of any property by him, are forbidtion removed. I was on the bosom of the mighty Mississippi, a stream that in the carliest days of my geographical learning had been woven into my mental being as a thing of romance and of wonder. The hours of my boyhood, prattled away in my far eastern home, were never cheered with the hope that I would even see this vast receptacle of rivers. Under the circumstances, could I repress the enthusiasm that seized my soul, or wish to dissipate the soft serenity that diffused itself through my mind? Memory, through the telescope of history, looked back upon the time when this inland sea was as useless to the commercial world as the little branch that trickled down the vale; when its magnitude, its power, its swells and its subsilings, in all their heaven-pointing grandeur, were witnessed by no one but the savage who prowled in utter apathy along its shady margin. Then a savage majesty reigned supreme along its borders, the sturdy yet laid low the shadowy trees, nor had the waters-his winding sheet and his monument-a monument " perennius acre," that will hand his name down to the remotest

Had a pleasant time to Pine Bluff. The ladies on board delighted us with some excellent piano music, and after a general acquaintance had been formed, the passengers whiled" the evening hours away "on the light fantastic toe."

On landing I soon ascertained that the facilities for traveling were by no means so abundant as in our more favored section. I was referred to the wagon yard for a cheap conveyance to bear me to Tulip, distant 40 miles from Pine Bluff, Not wishing to have mind what to do next, when I learned that two other gentlemen were there who wished to go to Tulip. So "cohooting" together, we hired two U.S. mules, an old "Secesh' ambulance, and one of the Imperials to take us out, paying the very moderate sum of $30, all of which I would have had to pay had I been alone.
